News Release

Date: June 15, 2009

On Friday Evening June 15, 2009, the Northwest Regional Police received a report of a person being chased through a wooded area by someone with a gun. An intensive search of a wooded track off the 1700 block of Milton Grove Road in Mount Joy Township was conducted. The search began shortly after 10:00 PM Friday evening and continued until 3:30 AM on Saturday morning. The Northwest Regional Police were assisted by the Elizabethtown Borough Police and a Warwick Township Police with a K-9.

At day break the search resumed and continued until Brian Fry 18 YOA, a Mount Joy Township resident was found to be safe and staying with relatives. The incident was determined to be a hoax. The Northwest Regional Police are continuing their investigation.
