News Release

Date: July 7, 2009

On July 6, 2009, the Northwest Regional Police arrested an Elizabethtown woman on Retail Theft charges. Cindy L. Hartman F/44 YOA of the 100 Block of N. Poplar St. was stopped by Giant Food employees as she left the S. Market St. store in Elizabethtown with a shopping cart full of groceries. When Hartman was unable to produce a sales receipt for the $287.26 worth of groceries, store employees contacted the police. Lieutenant Carl Steinhart conducted an investigation which resulted in Hartman being charged with Retail Theft, a misdemeanor of the first degree, before District Justice Jayne Duncan.

Earlier on July 6, 2009, Lieutenant Carl Steinhart had filed Stalking, Harassment and Driving While Operating Privilege is Suspended or Revoked charges against Hartman for an unrelated incident. This incident occurred in the 800 block of North Hanover Street in Mount Joy Township on July 3, 2009.

In addition to the charges filed on July 6, 2009, outstanding warrants for Disorderly Conduct and Harassment were served on Hartman. Hartman was arraigned before District Judge Jayne Duncan and committed to the Lancaster County Prison in lieu of $1,000.00 cash bail.
