News Release

Date: September 21, 2009

The Northwest Lancaster County Police are investigating burglaries that occurred at two commercial businesses over this past weekend.

At approximately 11:00 PM Saturday, 19 September 2009, suspects used a power tool to remove a segment of the exterior wall to gain entry at Darrenkamps Elizabethtown Market, 191 Ridgeview Rd. South in Mount Joy Township. A safe was also breached with power tools and an undisclosed amount of money was taken.

Between 1:00 PM Saturday, 19 September 2009, and 6:50 AM on Monday, 21 September, suspects gained entry to Donegal Hydraulics, 1303 W. Main St. in Mount Joy Township. Entry was gained by breaking out a window. An undisclosed amount of money was taken from the office area of the business.

The Northwest Regional Police are requesting that anyone with information relating to these crimes contact them at 717-367-8481.
