News Release

Date: May 17, 2010

The Northwest Regional Police are investigating an attempted child abduction that occurred shortly after 2:00 PM on Saturday, May 15, 2010. The incident occurred in the 1200 block of Schwanger Road in Mount Joy Township. A 5 year old victim was playing in the area when a tan, 4-door vehicle pulled over to the side of the road where the boy was playing with two other friends. The driver opened the passenger side of the vehicle and told the 5 year old to get into the vehicle and he would take him home. The suspect was described as possibly a white male in his twenties or thirties with long hair. He was wearing black framed sunglasses, a dark colored shirt and pants. When the victim refused to get into the vehicle, the suspect vehicle sped off traveling West on Schwanger Rd. towards Cloverleaf Rd.

The Northwest Regional Police are asking anyone who may have information regarding the incident to contact them at 717-367-8481. The suspect vehicle is described as a tan, earlier 2000 model, small to mid size, four-door sedan with lighter tinted windows and a moon roof.
