News Release

Date: June 1, 2010

The Northwest Regional Police are investigating an incident of Institutional Vandalism at the Rheems Elementary School in West Donegal Township. At approximately 11:00 AM on Monday, 31 May 2010, a gray, Jeep Cherokee drove onto the school campus and caused damage to the school landscaping.

Mr. Brad Sterner, the school principal, was in his office on Monday morning, when from his office window he observed a gray, Jeep Cherokee driving on the school property grass doing "donuts" and causing damage to the lawn. Before Mr. Sterner could confront the suspects, the suspects fled from the area in the Jeep Cherokee.

The total estimated damage to the school property is not known at this time. The two suspects are described as white males being in their late teens or early twenties, without shirts. The one suspect wore a white baseball cap backwards on his head.

The Northwest Regional Police are requesting that anyone with information regarding the incident contact them at 717-367-8481.
